B) Report

i. Title: Basic Grammatical Rules of English Writing

ii. Introduction:

The Department of English, Rajarshi Shahu Mahavidyalaya (Empowered Autonomous Institution), Latur, organized the workshop on "Basic Grammatical Rules of English Writing" on 28 September 2026 at 12:00 p.m. in the Audio-Visual Lab (401). The program was intended for UG and PG students of English Major and Minor as well as well as Students of Other Faculty. The workshop focused on strengthening the basic grammatical foundation required for clear, accurate and effective English writing.

iii. Objectives of the Workshop:

1.To strengthen the basic grammatical foundation of UG and PG students.
2. To develop accuracy in English writing through a clear understanding of fundamental grammatical rules.
3. To improve students' confidence in using English correctly in academic and everyday communication.
4. To help students identify and avoid common grammatical errors in writing.
5. To encourage students to practice grammatical rules and apply them in meaningful written communication.

iv. Details of Participants:

The workshop was attended by 98 participants, comprising 95 UG and PG students and 3 faculty members. The program was designed for students of English Major and Minor as well as Students of Other Faculty. The participation of students provided a broad academic base for the workshop and supported active engagement with the subject of English grammar.

v. Brief Summary of Events:

The workshop commenced at 12:00 p.m. in the Audio-Visual Lab (401). The Department of English welcomed the chairperson of the workshop Dr Mahadev Gavhane, HoD Dr Anuja Jadhav, faculty members, participants and introduced the purpose of the workshop. Mr. Krishna Deshmukh served as the Resource Person and conducted the session on the basic grammatical rules required for effective English writing.

The session focused on building students' awareness of grammatical accuracy and encouraging them to apply grammatical principles while writing. Attention was given to the practical use of grammar in written communication, with emphasis on developing clarity, correctness and confidence. The workshop provided the students with an opportunity to understand the importance of grammatical rules as a foundation for effective writing.

The participation of 95 UG and PG students, along with 3 faculty members, made the program academically meaningful. The workshop encouraged students to learn, practice and improve their English language skills. The overall activity was conducted in an academic and participative environment.

vi. Conclusion:

The Workshop on Basic Grammatical Rules of English Writing was an academic and skill-oriented activity organized by the Department of English. It provided students with an opportunity to strengthen their understanding of fundamental grammatical rules and their application in English writing. The participation of 98 attendees (95 UG & PG students and 3 faculty members) reflects the academic relevance of the program. The workshop concluded with an emphasis on regular practice, grammatical accuracy and effective written communication.
