B) REPORT

i) Title:

Rangoli and Poster Making Competition under SVEEP

ii) Introduction:

We live in democracy. Voting rights is basic rights of people so to promote voter awareness under the Systematic Voters' Education and Electoral Participation (SVEEP) initiative, the Department of Political Science and Public Administration organized a Rangoli and Poster Making Competition. The event aimed to engage students in creative expressions regarding democratic participation and women's roles in modern society.

The competition was conducted under the guidance of Chief Organizers Principal Dr. Mahadev Gavhane and Vice Principal Prof. S. N. Shinde. The organizing committee included Prof. Dnyaneshwar Bansode, Prof. Shrikrishna Panchal, Prof. Rutuja Bawachakar, Dr. Vitesh Nikte, and Prof. Sudarshan Patil.

iii) Objectives of the Programme / Issues Addressed:

1. To develop artistic expression and stage courage through creative presentation.
2. To educate students about the importance of democratic participation in society.
3. To foster equality among students and within the classroom environment.
4. To raise awareness regarding the importance of voting.

iv) Details of Participation: 30 Males and 84 Female were participated.

v) Brief Summary of Events/ Sessions:

On January 13, 2026, the Department hosted the competition at the Main Stage for all faculty students and Political Science majors. Participants created vibrant Rangolis and insightful posters focused on themes like Voting Rights and Indian Democracy. The event successfully ran the SVEEP framework to encourage civic responsibility.

vi) Conclusion, with Feedback on the Programme:

The program concluded on a high note, demonstrating that creative arts are effective tools for social and political awareness. By integrating SVEEP objectives, the event bridged the gap between historical struggles for education and modern-day democratic challenges. Participants provided positive feedback, noting that the competition strengthened their connection to the institution's values as an Empowered Autonomous Institution.
