B) REPORT

i) Title:

Movie Screening: Mohenjo Daro

ii) Introduction:

The study of political science is not merely confined to modern governance and policy; it is deeply rooted in the historical evolution of societal structures and civilizational values. In alignment with this academic objective, the Department of Political Science and Public Administration, under the aegis of the "Republic Students Study Board," organized a special educational movie screening on January 17, 2026.

The program featured the film Mohenjodaro, screened in Hall No. 218, as a supplementary learning initiative for the Indian Knowledge Systems (IKS) paper. The primary objective of this event was to bridge the gap between theoretical historical texts and visual representation, allowing students to explore the sophisticated urban planning, socio-political hierarchies, and cultural frameworks of the Indus Valley Civilization.

iii) Objectives of the Programme / issues addressed:

- 1.To integrate Indian Knowledge Systems (IKS) through visual representations of ancient history.
- 2.To analyze the socio-political structures and administrative systems of the Indus Valley.
- 3.To foster historical awareness and a sense of social responsibility among students.
- 4.To encourage critical thinking by comparing ancient governance with modern political frameworks.

iv) Details of Participation: 09 Male and 45 Female were participated.

v) Brief Summary of Events/ Sessions:

The program commenced at 02:00 PM in Hall No. 218 with an opening address by the faculty of the Political Science and Public Administration Department. The session began by establishing the transition in the study board's focus: moving from contemporary internal security issues to the foundational roots of Indian governance under the Indian Knowledge Systems (IKS) framework.

vi) Conclusion, with Feedback on the Programme:

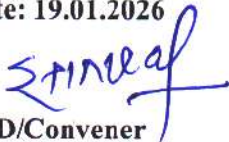

The program successfully utilized cinema to connect Indian Knowledge Systems (IKS) with modern political thought. By exploring the civilizational roots of governance, students gained a rational perspective on how historical administrative structures influence today's social responsibility and political identity.
