B) REPORT

i) Title:

Farewell Function

ii) Introduction:

On April 18, 2026, the Department of Political Science and Public Administration organized a heart-warming farewell function to honour the outgoing students of the UG III and PG II batches. The event was successfully coordinated with the enthusiastic assistance of the junior students from M.A. I, B.A. I, and B.A. II. During the ceremony, faculty members addressed the gathering, sharing nostalgic reflections on the students' journey and offering valuable guidance for their future careers. In response, the graduating students from PG II and UG III delivered moving speeches, expressing their gratitude and sharing their memorable experiences within the department and the college. The program was formally presided over by Prof. Dnyaneshwar Bansode, Prof. Sudarshan Patil, Prof. Shrikrishna Panchal, Prof. Rutuja Bawachakar, Dr. Mahadev Jadhav and Dr. Vitesh Nikte, concluding on a high note of mutual respect and best wishes for the departing graduates.

iii) Objectives of the Programme/issues addressed:

1. To celebrate the academic journey and achievements of the graduating students.
2. To provide a platform for outgoing students to express their experiences and feedback.
3. To facilitate a formal interaction between senior students and faculty before graduation.
4. To offer professional guidance and motivational encouragement for the students' future careers.

iv) Details of Participation: 01 Male and 39 Female were participated.

v) Brief Summary of Events/ Sessions:

On April 18, 2026, the Department of Political Science and Public Administration organized a farewell function for B.A. III and M.A. II students at this Empowered Autonomous Institution. The program included a gift presentation by juniors, emotional reflections from the graduating batches, and career guidance from the faculty. The event concluded successfully with a formal vote of thanks from the junior representative, marking a meaningful end to the students' academic journey.

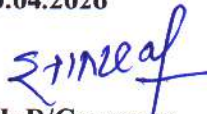

vi) Conclusion, with Feedback on the Programme:

The farewell function is an annual tradition organized by the junior batches to honor the academic journey of graduating students and celebrate their contributions to the department. This year's program successfully provided a platform for outgoing students to reflect on their experiences, fostering a sense of belonging and lasting connection with the institution. The feedback from participants was overwhelmingly positive, noting that such events strengthen the bond between faculty and students while providing the graduates with the motivation and guidance needed to step confidently into their future professional lives.
