B) REPORT

i) Title:

Movie Screening: Article 15

ii) Introduction:

The Department of Political Science and Public Administration, under the Republic Students Study Association, organized a screening of the film Article 15 on February 23, 2026. Held in Hall No. 218, the event served as a pedagogical tool for the Indian Constitution and Human Rights course. The initiative aimed to help students critically examine socio-political realities—such as caste stratification and the Rule of Law by bridging the gap between theoretical constitutional provisions and their practical implementation in society.

iii) Objectives of the Programme / issues addressed:

1. To integrate constitutional jurisprudence with visual narratives to analyze the practical enforcement of anti-discrimination laws in modern India.
2. To examine systemic socio-political hierarchies and the persistent impact of caste-based stratification on contemporary governance.
3. To foster constitutional morality and a heightened sense of social justice among students as future administrative leaders.
4. To evaluate the ethical challenges faced by the executive branch when navigating deep-seated societal prejudices and the "Rule of Law."

iv) Details of Participation: 12 Male and 41 Female were participated.

v) Brief Summary of Events/ Sessions:

The program commenced at 02:30 PM in VLC Hall with an opening address by the faculty of the Political Science Department. The session began by establishing a critical transition in the study board's pedagogical focus: moving from the civilizational foundations of governance to the rigorous examination of Constitutional Morality and modern social justice frameworks.

vi) Conclusion, with Feedback on the Programme:

The program successfully utilized cinema to connect Constitutional Jurisprudence with modern political thought and administrative ethics. By exploring the deep-seated social hierarchies that challenge the "Rule of Law," students gained a rational perspective on how Article 15 functions not just as a legal text, but as a vital tool for social responsibility and political identity.
