B) REPORT

i) Title: Open Forum on "Political Opinion of Youth"

ii) Introduction:

Department of Political Science and Public Administration organized an "Open Forum on Political Opinion of Youth" on January 29, 2026. This initiative was specifically designed for Political Science students to complement their research, on "Indian Politics." Recognizing that the youth are pivotal stakeholders in the democratic process, this forum provided a platform for students to discuss how socio-political factors, including caste and regional identity, influence current political opinions in the state.

The program was successfully conducted under the guidance of Hon. Principal Dr. Mahadev Gavhane. Faculty members Prof. Dnyaneshwar Bansode, Prof. Sudarshan Patil, Prof. Shrikrishna Panchal, Prof. Rutuja Bawachakar, and Dr. Vitesh Nikte from the Department of Political Science took the lead in facilitating the sessions and ensuring a constructive environment for the exchange of ideas.

iii) Objectives of the Programme:

1. To encourage students to articulate their personal and academic perspectives on contemporary politics.
2. To analyze the factors that shape the political opinions and voting preferences of the younger generation.
3. To bridge the gap between theoretical political concepts and practical civic engagement.
4. To foster a culture of open debate and critical thinking regarding the political landscape of Maharashtra.

iv) Details of Participation: 13 Male and 56 Female were participated.

v) Brief Summary of Sessions:

The forum focused on the theme of "Youth in Politics" and how traditional factors like caste continue to shape modern political opinions. Participants engaged in a structured discussion regarding their observations from the Latur district. The session explored how youth perceive the "tools of politics" and whether their voting behavior is driven by developmental issues or inherited social identities. Students presented their findings from field observations, highlighting that while caste remains a vital part of the political fabric, there is a growing trend among youth toward performance-based politics.

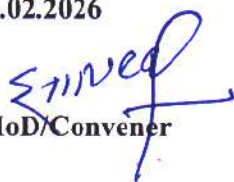

vi) Conclusion & Feedback:

The Open Forum successfully transformed the Faculty of Humanities' approach into a more practical and interactive experience. By discussing "Political Opinion of Youth," students were able to better understand the nuances of voter behavior and research methodology. The feedback was overwhelmingly positive, with students noting that the forum helped them gain confidence in expressing their political views based on empirical evidence and academic study.
