B) REPORT

i) Title:

Screening of Movie "The Legend of Bhagat Singh"

ii) Introduction:

On the occasion of the 80th Independence Day of India, the Department of Political Science and Public Administration under the Republic Students Association and Movie Club organized a screening of The Legend of Bhagat Singh (2002). Directed by Rajkumar Santoshi, the biographical period drama stars Ajay Devgn alongside Sushant Singh, D. Santosh, and Akhilendra Mishra. The film chronicles Bhagat Singh's journey from witnessing colonial atrocities to leading the Hindustan Socialist Republican Association against British rule, highlighting key themes of patriotism, social justice, hunger strikes, and his ultimate martyrdom for national independence.

iii) Objectives of the Programme / issues addressed:

- 1) Revolutionary Ideology: Deepen student understanding of radical and socialist strands in the Indian Freedom Struggle.
- 2) Youth & Resistance: Analyze the impact of youth leadership, ideological commitment, and anti-imperial resistance.
- 3) Historical Awareness: Highlight key events Jallianwala Bagh, Simon Commission protests, and Assembly bombing and their national impact.
- 4) Theory to History: Connect concepts of revolution, imperialism, and political martyrdom to historical realities through cinema.

iv) Details of Participation:

43 Male and 89 Female participated in this activity.

v) Brief Summary of Events/ Sessions:

The movie screening commenced strictly at 12:30 PM. Prior to the show, Dr. Nikte addressed the gathering, emphasizing the pedagogical value of cinema in understanding historical and socio-political movements. Students were instructed to maintain decorum throughout the screening and were tasked with submitting an analytical summary following the event to evaluate their understanding of the film's political themes.

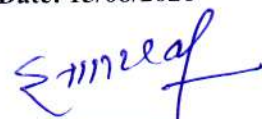

vi) Conclusion, with Feedback on the Programme:

The screening of The Legend of Bhagat Singh was an informative and meaningful programme for the B.A. and M.A. Political Science students. It helped students relate theoretical concepts of revolutionary nationalism, anti-imperialism, youth mobilization, and political resistance to historical realities. The film encouraged critical thinking and generated strong interest in understanding the ideological foundations of India's freedom movement. The students found the screening highly engaging and appreciated the opportunity to learn through cinema. Overall, the programme successfully achieved its academic objectives and provided a valuable learning experience.
