B) Report

i. Title: Alumni talk on 'Significance of welfare of divyang people and uses of sociological knowledge'

ii. Introduction:

Department of sociology organized alumni talk on 'Significance of welfare of divyang people and uses of sociological knowledge' on the date of 10-09-2025. Mr. Aakash Kamble was the resource person of the program. He is one of the alumni of sociology department and now he is working in a well-known NGO (working for divyang welfare).

iii. Objectives of the Programme/ issues addressed:

1. To make awareness about social situations of divyang people in society
2. To discuss welfare programs about divyang people and uses of sociological knowledge
3. To motivate students to interact with one of the alumni of sociology department

iv. Details of Participants:

Total 21 participants (Male-01, Female-20) participated in this activity.

v. Brief Summary of Events/ Sessions:

Department of sociology organized alumni talk on 'Significance of welfare divyang people and uses of sociological knowledge' on the date of 10-09-2025. Mr. Aakash Kamble was the resource person of the program. He delivered a speech on 'Significance of welfare of divyang people and uses of sociological knowledge'.

He shared his experiences about working for welfare of divyang people. He told that sociological knowledge is very helpful for working in NGO as a social worker. This knowledge enhances communication skills and develops social sense, which is necessary for professional social workers. He shared his experiences in his college life, which were motivational for students. Sayali Samudre (HOD), Dr. Bhagvant Bokade took efforts to make this activity successful. Hon. Principal Dr..Mahadev Gavhane was the inspiration of this program.

vi. Conclusion:

To conclude this activity 'alumni talk' was an initiative taken by the department of sociology to develop friendly bond between alumni and present students. It was an attempt to motivate students to interact with alumni and learn some useful things from their experiences. Students gave nice response to this activity.
