i. Title:

Career Guidance on Financial Literacy and Soft Skill Development

ii. Introduction

Soft skills are important for professional growth and employment as they support the technical knowledge gained through financial literacy. To meet this need, the Faculty of Commerce organized a programme on “Career Guidance on Financial Literacy and Soft Skill Development.”

iii. Objectives of the Programme/ issues addressed:

1. To emphasize the importance of soft skills for career growth and employment
2. To provide students with knowledge of financial literacy for better financial decision-making.
3. To help students improve their communication, teamwork, and confidence in speaking.
4. To create awareness among students about Financial Management.
5. To equip students for real-life challenges by developing both financial and soft skills.

iv. Details of Participants:

Total 93 participants (25 Male and 68 Female) were present for the programme.

v. Brief Summary of Events/ Sessions

The Faculty of Commerce organized a programme on “Career Guidance on Financial Literacy and Soft Skill Development” on 13th December 2024 at 11:00 a.m. The program was chaired by Dr. P. S. Trimukhe, Head of the Faculty of Commerce. The present programme commenced with an introduction to the guest, delivered by Mr. A. K. Joshi. The esteemed resource person, Shri Govind Kolhe, provided an insightful session on Financial Literacy and Soft Skill Development. He emphasized the importance of Public Speaking, developing stage confidence, and understanding financial concepts to equip students for future challenges. The vote of thanks was proposed by Ms. A.S. Jagtap. The program was efficiently conducted by Mr. A. K. Joshi and Ms. A. S. Jagtap.

vi. Conclusion, with Feedback on the Programme:

All the students participated with great enthusiasm. This program helped students to learn important skills like managing money and improving communication, teamwork, and public speaking. Overall, the program was engaging and gave students valuable tools for their future careers.
