We have called for this program our respected HoD of English Department Dr Anuja Jadhav Ma'am as inaugurator.

The purpose of poster presentation on women Writers in English is to inform, educate, and engage viewers about the rich contribution of women writers to English literature. It aims to showcase their important works, themes, writing styles, and cultural significance in a visually appealing and easy-to-understand format. It also helps students, teachers and audiences Gain knowledge about renowned women authors and their literary achievements, understand how Indian culture and society are reflected in English writing, develop interest in reading literature and Enhance learning through creative visual presentation.

The students of Under Graduation participated in a huge number. They Made posters on Indian Authors in English like Virginia Woolf, Toni Morison, Jane Austen, Sudha Murthy and many more. They had given good presentation on their posters.

vi. Conclusion, with Feedback on the Programme

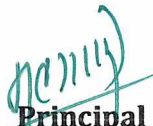

Students actively participated in Poster Presentation Competition on Women Writers in English. They were very happy and given very good feedback on the competition.
