3. To learn about unique architecture of various monuments
4. To know unique perspective on social life inhabitants during 14th to 16th century.

iii) Details of Participants: 18 (Male-06, Female-12)

iv) Brief Summary of Events:

Department of Botany organized Long Excursion and Study Tour during 25th Oct to 28th Oct 2024 at Hampi. The teachers along with students were gathered at Rajarshi Shahu Mahavidyalaya, Latur and departed towards Hospet at 9:30 pm. Prof. S.N. Shinde and staff members gave Best Wishes to all Teachers and students for their memorable journey and good health. All those members reached at Hospet at 5:30 am. After that journey started towards Hampi.

Day I: Krishnapura (26th Oct 2024) The day started with the visit to Sasivekalu Ganesha Temple. Hampi is a world heritage site which is known for its magnificent temples and one such fine specimen is Sasivekalu Ganesha Temple. Sasivekalu Ganesha Temple is a huge statue of Lord Ganesha, carved out of a single block of rock. It is one of the major landmarks in Hampi. Sasivekalu Ganesha is about 8 feet tall. Along with this temple we visited Lakshmi Narasimha Temple in which Narsimha is sitting on the coil of giant seven headed snake called Sesha. There is another interesting place in Krishnapura named as Underground Shiva Temple which is known as Prasanna Virupaksha Temple. An interesting fact about the Prasanna Virupaksha Temple is that it is located a few meters below the ground level. The roof of the temple is at par with the present ground level while the main structure of the temple stands on a low lying area. On the same day we visited to one of the temple in Virupapuragaddi that is Vijaya Vittala Temple. The temple is built in the form of sprawling campus with compound wall and gateway towers. Vittala Temple is the most extravagant architectural show piece of Hampi. The highlight of Vittala Temple is its impressive pillared halls and the stone chariot. Stone Chariot is an iconic monument located in front of Vijaya Vittala Temple. Stone Chariot is a shrine dedicated to Garuda, the official vehicle of Lord Vishnu.

Day II: (27th Oct 2024) On the second day we went to Sugrivas Cave among Hampi Boulders. In this cave, Lord Rama and Hanuman met each other for the first time. The major attraction of this cave is a river located near it which makes it a pleasant place to visit. The cave is decorated with mesmerizing paintings inside it. It displays around 150 sculptures in 8 different themes. Another attraction near Sugrivas Cave is Elephant stables. This spot serves as a place to park royal elephants of the Vijayanagara era. Lotus Mahal, Hazara Rama Temple, Hemakuta hill temple and Queens Bath Palace. On the same day we visited a Dam in Hampi that is Tungabhadra Dam. It is located near the town of Hospet in Karnataka, is a multi-purpose dam serving irrigation, electricity generation and flood control. Built across the Tungabhadra river, a tributary of the mighty Krishna river. On Date 26 and 27th October 2024 we saw all the places in Hampi and after that on 27th Oct 2024 we all ready to return back to Latur at 8:00 pm.

v) Conclusion:

Students are benefited with long excursion to improve their knowledge about Historical place of Hampi.
