B) Report

i) Title: Celebration of International Women's Day

ii) Introduction:

International Women's Day 2025 will be celebrated globally on Saturday, March 8, under the campaign theme "Accelerate Action." This campaign theme emphasizes the urgent need to take decisive steps toward achieving gender equality, addressing the slow pace of progress, and empowering women and girls worldwide. It is about women's equality in all its forms. For some, it is about fighting for women's rights. This programme is organized to highlight the importance of women because the story of women's struggle for equality belongs to neither single feminist nor to any one organization but to the collective effort of all who care about human rights. All of us should make international women's day as our day.

iii) Objectives of the programme:

- 1) To motivate women to participate actively in leadership, decision-making, and community development.
- 2) To know the importance of women in human's life.
- 3) To aware the student about gender equity.
- 4) To empower women and girls worldwide.

iv) Details of participants: 41(Male-05 & Female-36)

v) Brief summary of Events:

The department of Botany organizes Celebration of International Women's Day. The program aimed to highlight the importance of gender equality, women's empowerment, and their contributions to society. Students played a significant role in the event by expressing their thoughts through speeches. They shared inspiring ideas about the role of women in modern society, challenges faced by them, and the need for equal opportunities in all fields. Many students also emphasized the importance of education, self-confidence, and independence for women's growth. Teachers also addressed the gathering and shared inspiring messages. They highlighted the significance of respecting women, promoting equal rights, and encouraging women to pursue education and career goals. They motivated students to contribute towards building a more inclusive and supportive society.

Prof. S. N. Shinde gave presidential address. He highlighted the significance of Women's Day and emphasized the need for gender equality and women's empowerment in today's society. The President appreciated the active participation of students and encouraged them to respect and support women in all aspects of life. The speech also focused on the importance of education, self-confidence, and independence for women's progress. It motivated students to contribute positively towards creating a safe, equal, and inclusive environment. All the staff members of Botany department conducted competition successfully.

vi) Conclusion of programme:

The celebration created awareness and encouraged students to respect and support women in all aspects of life. Overall, the program was meaningful, thought-provoking, and successfully conveyed the message of empowerment and equality.
