B) Report

i. Title: Guest Lecture on CSIR NET and MH-SET.

ii. Introduction: The CSIR NET Exam stands as the pinnacle for students in the science stream. Administered by the National Testing Agency (NTA), this national-level examination by the Council of Scientific and Industrial Research (CSIR) serves to ascertain candidates' eligibility for Junior Research Fellowship (JRF) and Lectureship (LS)/Assistant Professor positions across Indian universities and colleges. Through this guest lecture, students gain a comprehensive understanding of future opportunities and are inspired to embark on diligent preparation for the examination.

iii. Objectives of the Programme/ Issues Addressed:

- Enhancing understanding of CSIR NET and MH-SET.
- Facilitating discussions on students' preparation queries.
- Inspiring and motivating students towards higher academic and research pursuits.
- Addressing the aptitude section of the exam.
- Analyzing the syllabus and offering preparation strategies.

iv. Details of Participants:

47 participants (Male 17 and 30 Female) attended the Guest lecture.

v. Brief Summary of Events/Sessions: The lecture was incredibly engaging for students and faculty alike, sparking motivation to pursue research. Mr. Bajrang Karad provided valuable insights into CSIR NET and SET examinations, highlighting their diverse opportunities post-clearance. Students were pleased with his willingness to address their challenging questions, offering detailed syllabus analysis and preparation strategies. Overall, this guest lecture ignited interest in research entrance exams among undergraduate and postgraduate students.

vi. Conclusion With feedback of Workshop: In conclusion, Mr. Bajrang Karad's insightful lecture not only engaged students and faculty but also inspired a newfound enthusiasm for research and higher academic pursuits. By shedding light on the intricacies of CSIR NET and SET examinations, addressing student queries, and offering comprehensive preparation strategies, he effectively fostered a culture of academic curiosity and ambition among attendees. This lecture undoubtedly served as a catalyst for students to explore the exciting possibilities within the realm of research and higher education.
