B) A Report

i. Title "Investor Awareness and Introduction to Capital Markets"

ii. Introduction: The success of a mutual fund depends upon the awareness and confidence level of the investors. The investment pattern varies with age, education, gender, occupation. The present study is conducted with the objective of assessing the awareness level of the investors. It was observed low level of awareness about mutual fund among the investors. It also observed significant difference in the awareness level the investors belonging to different education background and gender.

iii. Objectives of the Programme:

- To aware the students about Capital Markets
- To invest smartly

iv. Details of Participants: 45 Male and 33 Female (Total 78) Students and Faculty Participated in this workshop.

v. Brief Summary of Events/ Sessions: Dr. Rinkesh Cheeda from NSE addressed the importance of Mutual Funds, SIPs ,and Capital Markets introduction. He also added why and how to invest smartly.

vi. Conclusion, with Feedback on the Programme:

400 Students participated. Mutual Funds, though a very profitable form of investment, with limited risk factors compared to shares and debentures, have not yet shown itself to the potential investors so as to invest in favorable returns. So as to make mutual funds familiar, initiatives should be first started from part of the service providers in form of awareness campaigns, innovative financial instruments, advertisements etc which can help trigger the growth of this mode of finance sector which can thereby help promote the individual, institutional as well as economic goals of the country.
