B) Report

i. Title: Poster Presentation Competition on the “Marathwada Liberation Struggle with special reference to Latur District” on the occasion of Marathwada Liberation Struggle Day.

ii. Introduction:

On the occasion of Marathwada Liberation Struggle Day, the NCC Girls & Boys Unit of Shiv Chhatrapati Shikshan Sanstha’s Rajarshi Shahu Mahavidyalaya, Latur, Empowered Autonomous Institution, organized a Poster Presentation Competition on 17th September 2026.

The main theme of the competition was “Marathwada Liberation Struggle with special reference to Latur District.” The activity was organized to encourage NCC cadets to learn about the historical events, contributions, and significance of the Marathwada Liberation Struggle through creative and visual presentations.

iii. Objective of the Program:

1. To create awareness among NCC cadets about the history of the Marathwada Liberation Struggle.
2. To highlight the contribution of freedom fighters and people of Latur district to the liberation movement.
3. To develop historical awareness and a sense of respect for the region's heritage among cadets.
4. To encourage creativity and innovative presentation skills through poster making.
5. To develop research, communication, teamwork, and presentation skills among NCC cadets.
6. To provide cadets with an opportunity to express historical knowledge through creative means.

iv. Details of participants:

81 NCC cadets (48 Boys and 33 Girls) and 02 Associate NCC Officer were participated.

v. Brief summary of the program:

The Poster Presentation Competition was organized on 17th September 2026 by the NCC Girls & Boys Unit of Rajarshi Shahu Mahavidyalaya, Latur, as part of the observance of Marathwada Liberation Struggle Day.

A total of 65 NCC Cadets, including Girls and Boys, actively participated in the competition and prepared informative and creative posters based on the theme of the Marathwada Liberation Struggle, particularly in relation to Latur District.

The posters reflected various aspects of the liberation struggle, including important historical events, freedom fighters, people's participation, and the significance of the movement. The competition provided cadets with an opportunity to explore local history and present their understanding in a creative visual format.

Dr. Prakash Rodiya served as the judge for the competition and evaluated the posters based on their historical content, creativity, presentation, and relevance to the theme.

The prize distribution ceremony was conducted in the presence of Shri. Babruwan Gomsale, Respective Member, Shiv Chhatrapati Shikshan Sanstha, and Dr. Mahadev Gavhane, Principal, Rajarshi Shahu Mahavidyalaya, Latur. The prizes were awarded as follows:

Position	Name of Cadets	Nature of Prize
First	CDT Amruta Maske CDT Aditi Gaikwad	₹ 701/- Cash
Second	CDT Suraj Vibhute CDT Tushar Bamane CDT Vyankatesha Hajare	₹ 501/- Cash
Third	SGT Aarti Ghodake JUO Vaishnavi Muktapure CQMS Srushti Buke	₹301/- Cash

vi. Conclusion:

The Poster Presentation Competition on the Marathwada Liberation Struggle successfully promoted historical awareness among NCC cadets and provided them with a platform to express their knowledge through creativity.

The participation of 81 Girl and Boys Cadets demonstrated their interest in understanding and presenting the history of the Marathwada Liberation Struggle. The activity also contributed to developing creativity, historical understanding, teamwork, research skills, and presentation abilities among the cadets.

Overall, the activity was a meaningful initiative to commemorate Marathwada Liberation Struggle Day and to encourage young students to understand and appreciate the historical heritage of Latur and Marathwada.
